Acclaimed Western Sydney rapper D Minor has today released his new single 'Only You', inspired by his personal story of overcoming hardship, 'Only You' is a letter to anyone going through a tough time right now. The new single is a sublime earworm, with D Minor's signature rap style combined with heavenly production weaving electric guitar and synths to transport you into his story of overcoming.

D Minor was inspired for his new single during lockdown while on a run, "I wanted to write a song that talked about building up mental toughness and resilience when times are hard. To find beauty within pain. To find strength and motivation deep within yourself when times get tough while chasing your dreams. It's also a song about overcoming past failures."

Speaking about how he hopes to motivate others, D Minor noted, "I want people to feel inspired, that even though you may face pain or discouragement throughout life that times do heal and continue chasing those dreams. To never give up and believe in yourself to pull through and make your ambition come alive, hence why the song is called Only You."

D Minor also combines his personal experience, music and mentoring in his Ambassador role with Musicians Making A Difference where he hopes to inspire the next generation of music makers. He recently shared a teaser of 'Only You' for Musicians Making A Difference Day on October 15, a national day raising awareness for the charity and the important work they do as well as inspiring young people to make their lives remarkable through music.

Since discovering his love of music at a young age, D Minor has used his talent and passion as his salvation when he found himself homeless and in shelter homes at a young age. Competing in Australia's Got Talent in 2019 rose him to national profile, and has since gone on to become a strong independent artist with numerous hit singles including the inspired 'Concrete Pillow feat. Alli

Simpson' where he talks about his upbringing and struggles with homelessness and 'Homerun feat. Zeek Power', amassing over 1.75 million views online and growing his dedicated fan base.

Sit back and be inspired by 'Only You' from D Minor out now through Ditto Music.
